

Superb village wash-house in aged and patinated stones

This large village wash house is made of antique aged and patinated natural stones. This crafted and unique creation presents a pediment with capitals and molded corbels, a large metallic water outlet, thick inclined curbstones, double basins in paired stone separated by a central stone carved in such way to allow the spill of the water from one basin to the other.

Height 162 cm
Width 240 cm
Depth 360 cm

- Curbstones width : about 35 cm - Basin's height :
54 and 62 cm

Price
12000 €

Reference
FA811