

Small garden wall fountain in patinated limestone

This small rustic-looking water fountain is a hand-crafted and unique creation signed Atelier Alain Bidal, master stone-cutter in Provence. It is carved in the white stone of Avy, a natural French limestone that is frost-resistant, robust and durable. This small fountain is made of a shallow basin, a fairly sober pediment highlighted by the 2 side stones. A pair of metal bucket rest bars and a wrought iron water outlet complete the set. The basin has a small drainage hole.
