

Garden pond with large central ball in patinated natural stone

This stone garden fountain is an elegant water basin carved in patinated natural limestone. It has large and thick molded copings (30 cm wide x 12 cm thick) which rest on thick blocks of stone forming the square basin. The central consists of a molded base and a large stone ball of 50 cm in diameter. These 2 elements are drilled to allow the water to flow from the top of the ball. Beautiful natural patina.
