

Wall fountain in old patinated stones with pediment and 2 water spouts

This large wall fountain made of aged and patinated natural stones is a unique model. Charmingly rustic, this garden fountain is composed of a large basin made of thick basement stones topped by flat copings and of a pediment decorated with a molded breastplate, corbels, 2 wrought iron water spouts and a finely molded overhanging cornice. It is sold with its pair of bucket-rest bars.
