

Large wall fountain with rounded basin and pediment decorated with a devil's head hand-carved in stone

This large wall fountain fitted with old stones patinated by time is a unique model. Its high semi-circular basin has thick flat copings. The pediment flanked by 2 corbels is surmounted by a magnificent hand-molded cornice and is adorned, in its center, with a hand-sculpted stone mascarón (a devil's head) spitting water.
