

Charmingly rustic-looking wall fountain in reclaimed weathered stones

This small-size wall fountain, a garden fountain handcrafted in Provence and made using authentic antique materials, is a fairly simple yet full of yesteryear's rustic charm water feature. Its basin is made of 3 thick stones worn and patinated by time and is fitted with 2 metallic bucket rest bars. The massive monolith pediment is carved in the shape of a small boundary stone and is fitted with a large old cast iron water outlet. Unique model.
