Gothic-style wall fountain in aged stone with antique cast-iron gargoyle

This patinated stone fountain is a beautiful Gothic-style wall fountain (recognizable by its pointed arches, sculpted ornaments, and geometric motifs). Finely hand-carved, it stands out with its stunning pediment and an antique cast-iron head from which water flows. Its fairly low, semi-octagonal basin features wide, thick, flat coping stones and is fitted with a pair of metallic bucket-rest bars. A unique water feature that will bring charm and character to your garden !
